

UCLA BLUM CENTER
on Poverty and Health
in Latin America

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Student Research Poster Session

2ND ANNUAL SPRING CONFERENCE

Connecting International Partners to Strengthen Health Systems and Eliminate Health Disparities

May 6th and 7th, 2014

UCLA Campus – DeNeve Auditorium

About the Spring Conference: The UCLA Blum Center Second Annual Spring Conference is designed to advance knowledge on policy solutions aimed at creating more equitable health in Latin America.

Student Research Poster Session: Student poster presentations will be displayed at the UCLA Blum Center's Second Annual Spring Conference to showcase work completed by undergraduate and graduate students across multiple disciplines and levels of expertise. UCLA undergraduate and graduate students who would like to present research relating to the following topics are welcome to submit abstracts for poster presentations:

- ✚ Social Determinants of Health in Latin America
- ✚ Health Systems and Workforce in Latin America
- ✚ Impact of Poverty on Health in Latin America
- ✚ Policy and Health in Latin America
- ✚ Migration and Health in Latin America

Abstracts due: March 10th

Visit our website for more information about the conference and for instructions on abstract submission.

blumcenter.ucla.edu

For questions, please email us at blumcenter@ucla.edu